

I am sending this to request that you do not allow Broadband Over Power Line (BPL) to harm amature radio. As both a ham operator and member of the emergency unit for the Salvation Army I can assure you BPL's affect on mobile operation will greatly harm not only ham radio but all associated emergency services. Given the potential for a major emergency due to the war, anything which decreases the emergency response will greatly increase the cost and number of people hurt or killed.